

Introduction

Humans have always expressed a need to understand natural phenomenon and to answer questions regarding their way of life and what happens once they die. These needs resulted in the development of a variety of religions and philosophies that can be found throughout the world today.

At first, humans developed belief systems that were localized to the area in which they lived. As civilization developed, polytheism, or worshipping many gods, became quite common. Often cities, such as Athens, Greece, would worship gods who were seen as their protector.

In the Middle East, the Hebrews first established the concept of monotheism, or the belief in a single god. This laid the foundation for later religions such as Christianity and Islam.

In Asia, many philosophies were developed in order to establish a way of life for people. Some of these philosophies stressed order and structure in society, while others taught that humans should find harmony in nature, and be devoid of artificial rules on behavior.

Animism

Background

Animism is the oldest known type of belief system in the world. It is still practiced in a variety of forms in many traditional societies.

The Basics

Founder-There is no one person who is considered the founder of Animism.

Geographic Origin-Developed simultaneously in different parts of the world.

Currently Practiced-World-wide, but most common in areas of Africa and the Americas.

Significant Writings-Most traditional cultures that practice Animism also have an oral tradition of story-telling, rather than a developed writing system.

Places of Worship-Animist rituals tend to take place outdoors in nature.

Significant Religious People-Animist rituals are typically conducted by a Shaman, Medicine Man, or Medicine Woman.

Teachings and Beliefs

Animists practice nature worship. They believe that everything in the universe has a spirit. This is exemplified by the practices of the Plains Indians in North America who would praise the spirit of the buffalo that they killed for giving its life to them so that they might survive. Animists also believed that ancestors watch over the living from the spirit world. This belief resulted in ancestor worship as a means of communicating with and showing respect to ancestors.

Shinto

Background

Shinto, which means "Way of the Gods," is the traditional religion of Japan that focuses on nature. Many consider Shinto to be a form of Animism due to the many similarities found between them.

Basics

Established: Shinto was founded around the year 500 BCE.

Founder: Evolved from a mixture of tribal religions with similar beliefs.

Geographic Origin: Developed on the Japanese archipelago.

Currently Practiced: Most common in Japan.

Significant Writings: Kokiji, or Record of Ancient Matters and Nihongi, or Chronicles of Japan.

Places of Worship: Shinto shrines are usually dedicated near sites of impressive natural beauty (e.g., mountains, lakes, etc.), or of historical importance to Japan. The entrance to these shrines is usually indicated by the presence of a red gateway called a torii.

Significant Religious People: Traditionally, the Emperor of Japan was considered to be a direct descendant of the Sun Goddess who created the Japanese islands. Therefore, the Emperor was considered divine by the people who practiced Shinto. After Japan surrendered to the United States in WWII, Emperor Hirohito renounce his divinity and political authority.

Teachings and Beliefs

Shinto teaches that there is a sacredness of the whole universe and that humans can be in tune with this sacredness. Every mountain, river, plant, animal, and all the diverse phenomena of heaven and earth have spirits, or kami, which inhabit them. Reverence is paid to the ancestors through the practice of ancestor worship.

Hinduism

Background

Hinduism is a polytheistic religion that was formed from a variety of different religious practices.

Basics

Established- the Hindu religion can be traced back to the ancient Indus River Valley civilization

Founder-It has been theorized that Hinduism is a result of cultural diffusion that occurred between Aryan invaders and the native peoples of India sometime around 1500 BCE.

Geographic Origin-Developed on the Indian subcontinent.

Currently Practiced-Most common in India.

Significant Writings-Vedas, Upanishads, Ramayana, Mahabharata, Bhagavad Gita.

Places of Worship-While Hindu temples do exist, Hinduism is usually practiced in the home where there is usually a shrine dedicated to a favored deity.

Teachings and Beliefs

In Hinduism, salvation is achieved through a spiritual oneness of the soul, atman, with the ultimate reality of the universe, Brahman. To achieve this goal, the soul must obtain moksha, or liberation from the samsara, the endless cycle of birth, death, and rebirth. As a result of these basic teachings, Hindus believe in reincarnation, which is influenced by karma (material actions resulting from the consequences of previous actions), and dharma (fulfilling one's duty in life). Because all forms of animal life possess souls, Hindus believe in ahimsa, or that all life is sacred and should not be harmed. In fact, one animal which Hindus consider to be extremely sacred is the cow. The peaceful and contented existence of cows is considered virtuous by Hindus and would represent a rewarding reincarnation for a soul. For this reason, most Hindus are vegetarians so that they do not harm other living beings. The belief in reincarnation, karma, and dharma also provides the religious justification for the existence of the rigid social structure known as the Caste System.

Samsara

Samsara, or reincarnation, is a central teaching of Hinduism. Rivers are sometimes thought to symbolize reincarnation because they constantly flow, yet follow the same course. Perhaps the most sacred river is the Ganges, which is used for spiritual cleansing, funeral rites, and other Hindu rituals.

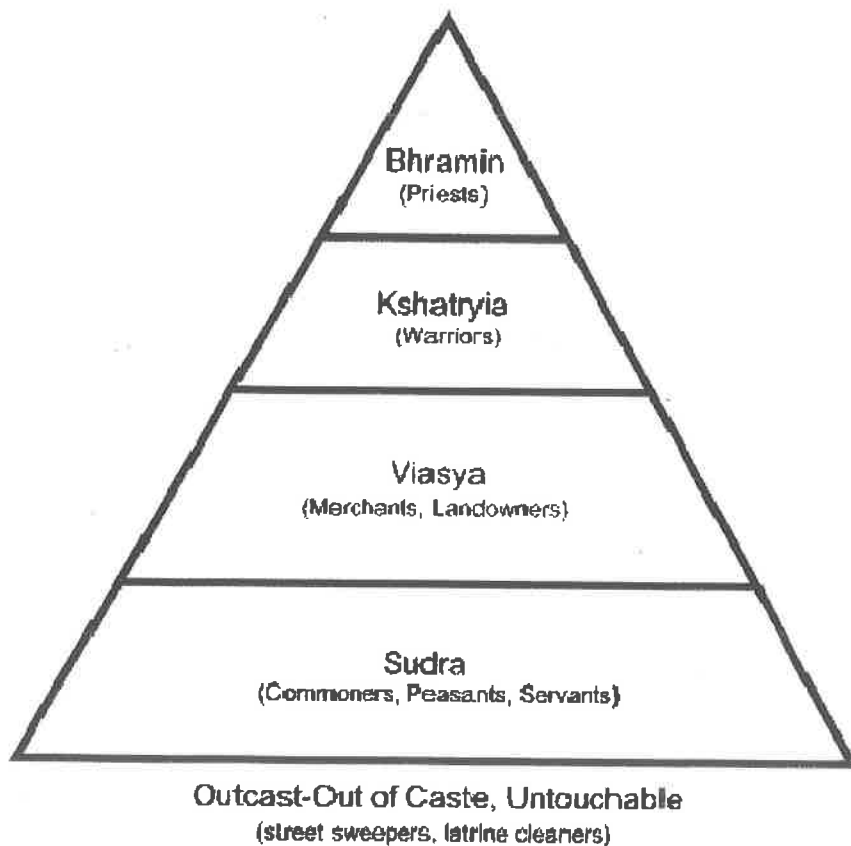

The concept of reincarnation can best be represented by the infinity symbol. When one is born, they are given life by Brahma, as they pass through life, they are preserved by Vishnu, until finally Shiva claims you in death. Then the cycle is repeated over and over again until one finally achieves moksha.

Caste System

The Caste System is a rigid class structure based on Hinduism which is found in India. It is believed that if one leads a good life, following good karma and dharma, then they will be rewarded by being reincarnated as a person belonging to the next highest level in the Caste System. However, if one is wicked during their life, they will be demoted, and possibly even removed from the Caste System altogether. Outcasts, or Untouchables, are members of Hindu society thought to have been removed from the Caste System, with no hope of returning to it, due to their misdeeds in previous lives. Work that is deemed unclean for all other Hindus is reserved for these Outcasts.

After winning its independence from Great Britain in 1947, India adopted a national constitution which stated that "Untouchability is abolished and its practice in any form is forbidden." Since that time many Caste reforms have been enacted to diminish discriminatory practices in India. Today, the Caste System still exists in practice, despite the many laws designed to legally abolish it.

Judaism

Background

Judaism is the oldest known monotheistic religion still practiced in the world today. Its fundamental teachings have been influential and are the basis for more recently developed religions such as Christianity and Islam.

The Basics

Founder-Abraham

Geographic Origin-Developed in the Middle East in and around the area that is currently Israel.

Currently Practiced-Worldwide, but the greatest majority of Jews reside in Israel, the United States, and the former Soviet Union.

Significant Writings-Torah and Talmud.

Places of Worship-Jews worship in temples called synagogues.

Significant Religious People-Rabbis

Teachings and Beliefs

Judaism teaches that there is one God who is the creator of all things. After the Hebrew exodus from Egypt, many Hebrews began to lose their faith in God. During this time, Moses went atop Mount Sinai and returned with two stone tablets containing laws that all Hebrews needed to follow. These laws, recorded in Exodus 20:3-17, became known as the Ten Commandments and include:

1. You shall have no other gods before Me.
2. You shall not make yourself any graven image,
3. You shall not take the name of the Lord your God in vain;
4. Remember the Sabbath day to keep it holy.
5. Honor your father and mother,
6. You shall not commit murder.
7. You shall not commit adultery.
8. You shall not steal.
9. You shall not witness falsely against your neighbor.
10. You shall not covet your neighbor's house, your neighbor's wife, or his manservant, or his maidservant, or his ox, or his donkey, or anything that is your neighbor's

Buddhism

Background

Buddhism developed in India, and is based on many of the core concepts of Hinduism..

The Basics

Founder-Siddhartha Gautama, or Buddha, which means "enlightened one."

Geographic Origin-Developed in India.

Currently Practiced-Most common in Southeast Asia and Japan..

Significant Writings-Tripitka, or Three Baskets of Wisdom.

Places of Worship-Buddhism may be practiced individually, but temples and monasteries do exist.

Significant Religious People-The Dalai Lama is the spiritual leader of the Tibetan sect of Buddhism, and is considered to be the reincarnation of the bodhisattva, or "Buddha-to-be." Buddhist monks can be identified by their traditional orange robes.

Teachings and Beliefs

Siddhartha was born into the Brahmin caste, and by all account led a luxurious lifestyle. However, he was troubled by the human misery that he saw around him every day. Upon reflection, he deduced that desire was the root cause of all suffering. This idea has been recorded as the Four Noble Truths.

Four Noble Truths

Siddhartha's philosophy of the nature of human suffering and its relation to desire is articulated by these four statements:

1. Life is full of pain and suffering.
2. Human desire causes this suffering.
3. By putting an end to desire, humans can end suffering.
4. Humans can end desire by following the Eightfold Path.

Buddhism 2

Eightfold Path

The Wheel of Life is one of the most important symbols of Buddhism, as it represents the endless cycle of life through reincarnation and because each of its eight spokes represents one of the teachings of the Eightfold Path.

1. Know that suffering is caused by desire.
2. Be selfless and love all life.
3. Do not lie, or speak without cause.
4. Do not kill, steal, or commit other unrighteous acts.
5. Do not do things which promote evil.
6. Take effort to promote righteousness.
7. Be aware of your physical actions, state of mind, and emotions.
8. Learn to meditate.

Reincarnation

Buddhists believe in an endless cycle of reincarnation, or samsara, which is similar to beliefs of Hinduism. However, Buddhists do not believe that deities are responsible for the phenomenon. In addition, the Caste System is rejected by Buddhists who believe instead that one is reincarnated until they can achieve nirvana, best described as spiritual enlightenment.

Confucianism

Background

Confucius lived in China during the Chou Dynasty, when there was mass disorder and confusion and degrading moral standards. Confucius was appalled by what appeared to be the fracturing of Chinese society. He believed that the only cure was to stress a sense of social order and mutual respect, a philosophy that later became known as Confucianism.

The Basics

Founder- Confucius

Geographic Origin- Developed in China around 500 BCE..

Currently Practiced- Elements of this philosophy are still practiced in Southeast Asia.

Significant Writings- The Analects.

Teachings and Beliefs

Confucianism teaches that there is a natural social order to society which can best be explained through the Five Relationships:

1. Ruler to ruled.
2. Father to son.
3. Older brother to younger brother.
4. Husband to wife.
5. Friend to friend.

In these relationships, the second role is considered subordinate to the first. It was taught that if everyone knew their place in society, then order would prevail. There are several concepts which needed to be practiced in order to achieve an ordered society:

Filial Piety- One should respect their elders.

Taoism

Background

The Chinese philosophy of Taoism (or Daoism) developed in the latter part of the Chou Dynasty, during a period of turmoil in which it was not clear that Chinese civilization would survive. It represents a naturalistic ideal of how one should live their life.

The Basics

Founder-The Chinese philosopher Lao Tze.

Geographic Origin-Developed in China around 500 BCE.

Currently Practiced-Elements of this philosophy are still practiced in Southeast Asia.

Significant Writings-Tao-te-Ching

Teachings and Beliefs

The Chinese term Tao can be translated into English, meaning "the way." It is a philosophy which teaches that nature has a "way" in which it moves, and that people should passively accept the "way" of nature, rather than resist it. One concept related to this is that of wu-wei, which means "not doing." This means that people should not act unnaturally by doing things, but rather should openly accept the natural way. An emphasis is placed on the link between people and nature. Taoism teaches that this link lessened the need for rules and order, and leads one to a better understanding of the world.

The Yin and Yang symbol (pictured above) has also been used to illustrate the natural harmony that exists in the world. Everything must have an opposing force that allows the harmonious universe to exist. For example:

Yin	Yang
Light	Dark
Male	Female
Heavenly	Earthly
Active	Passive

Christianity

Background

Christianity is currently the most popular religion in the world based on the number of worshippers found throughout the world. While this monotheistic religion developed from Judaism, there are several key differences in its teachings.

The Basics

Founder-Jesus of Nazareth and his disciples who helped spread his teachings.

Geographic Origin-Developed in Judea (now Israel), located in the Middle East bordering the Mediterranean Sea sometime around the year 30 CE.

Currently Practiced-Christianity is the dominant religion in North America, South America, Europe, and Russia.

Significant Writings-The Holy Bible, consisting of both the Old Testament and the New Testament.

Places of Worship-Christians practice their faith in temples usually referred to as churches.

Significant Religious People-Priests and ministers are Christian holy men and women who are charged with conducting religious services, ensuring that Jewish laws are observed, and serving as a spiritual guide for the community. In addition, deacons, nuns, and monks are people who have dedicated their lives to Christian service.

Teachings and Beliefs

Because Christianity evolved from Judaism, there are certain concepts that these two religions share. For example, both Jews and Christians subscribe to the Ten Commandments found in the Book of Exodus. In addition, prophecies of Jewish prophets contained in several books of the Old Testament stated that God would send a savior, or messiah, to the people of Israel. While Judaism clearly states that this event has not yet occurred, Christians believe that Jesus of Nazareth was the Son of God, sent to redeem the world of sin. Christians are expected to attend church services regularly, usually on Sundays and holy days such as Christmas and Easter. On these occasions Christians take part in sacraments, which are religious practices such as baptism, and receiving the Eucharist.

Islam

Background

Islam, which when translated from Arabic, means "to submit to the will of Allah," is the youngest of the world's major religions. Worshippers of this monotheistic religion are known as Muslims, which means "one who submits to the will of Allah." Islam is currently the second most practiced religion in the world, and experts predict that it will overtake Christianity as the most popular religion in the world sometime during the 21st century.

The Basics

Founder-Islam was founded by the prophet Mohammed.

Geographic Origin-Developed on the Arabian Peninsula in the year 622 CE

Currently Practiced- Islam is most dominant throughout the Middle East, including Southwest Asia and North Africa.

Significant Writings-The teachings of Islam are collected in the Qur'an or Koran.

Places of Worship-Muslims may gather to worship in temples called Mosques (see picture above).

Teachings and Beliefs

Mohammed received the word of God, or Allah, through the angel Gabriel while living in the city of Mecca. Townspeople soon became fearful of the Mohammed's preaching and he began to receive threats. As a result, he fled to the nearby city of Medina, where people began to believe in his message. The flight of Mohammed from Mecca to Median was instrumental to the founding of the religion of Islam, and is known as the Hejjira. Thus, in 622 CE Islam was founded and this date became the starting point for the Islamic calendar.

Mohammed and his followers later returned to Mecca and declared a jihad, or holy war, after which he captured the city. Under Mohammed's leadership, the basic teachings of Islam were established, which are known as the Five Pillars of Islam. Every Muslim is expected to follow these rules in order to lead an ethical life:

1. Confession of Faith: The belief that "there is no God but Allah, and Mohammed is His prophet."
2. Prayer: Muslims must pray five times per day, facing towards Mecca.
3. Charity: Muslims must give alms to the poor, and support the local Mosque by donating a portion of their income.
4. Fasting: During the Ramadan, the ninth month of the Muslim calendar, all Muslims must fast during daylight hours, except the very young or sick.
5. Pilgrimage: If possible financially, each Muslim must make a hajj, or holy pilgrimage, to the city of Mecca.
